

I am deeply opposed to the proposed rule changes that would scrap all the remaining media ownership caps. I have heard the effects of this kind of change on the radio; Clearchannel's ownership of some 1200 stations across the country has homogenized the sound of music. We don't need more homogenization in the other media.